“Tucked Away But Well Worth A Visit”

Directions – If you follow Sat Nav you may end up down very narrow scenic route roads...which are very beautiful and lovely but one vehicle width in places.

From M5 Junction 23 South Bound Travellers

Follow signs for Bridgwater. Take 3rd Exit signposted Bridgwater from motorway roundabout, at the next roundabout take the 1st exit sign posted Bridgwater A39. At the following roundabout take the second exit (straight on) onto Bristol Road (A38). Continue over the next roundabout on the (A38) until you right the traffic lights and then turn right into The Drove. Continue until next set of traffic lights and continue straight across onto Western Way. Western Way becomes Homberg Way and continue on this road until another roundabout, then follow signs for A39 Quantock Road. ******(See below)* Continue on this road which becomes New Road until you come to a roundabout at Cannington then take the second turning off the roundabout (straight on).

Continue on this road through Cannington until you see a War Memorial in the Centre, take the right hand turn directly in front. Continue on this road for approximately 7 miles and you will pass Combwich, Stogursey and Stolford turn offs. As you approach you will see a signpost left saying Shurton, Burton & Stogursey, take this left. Follow the road through and in approximately 500 yards you will find us on the right.

From Junction 24 M5 North Bound Travellers and from Taunton.

Take the 1st exit from the motorway roundabout then filter into the right hand lane and take the 3rd exit A38 Taunton Road signposted Bridgwater. Continue on A38 straight across the roundabout, continue on Taunton road until you meet traffic lights. Take the left hand lane and turn left into Broadway. Continue on Broadway straight across traffic lights until the road becomes Quantock Road (A39). Continue with directions above from *****this point!
